MCA Luncheon Features Commandant of the Marine Corps as Guest Speaker

Marine Corps Base Quantico – Quantico, Virginia – The January 2007 MCA Luncheon features newly assigned Commandant of the Marine Corps, General James T. Conway, as the guest speaker.

Conducted 3 times per year in the Washington D.C. area, MCA luncheons showcase top-level leaders to inform the Marine Corps community and interested guests of significant issues facing the Corps and country. Also serving as fraternal gatherings for retired Marines in the area, the events allow for attendees to maintain a close relationship with the Corps and its leaders.

Remarkable for a string of assignments of significant responsibility throughout his career, General Conway is best known for having led a Marine Battalion during Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm followed by his leadership of the 1st Marine Expeditionary Force during two combat tours in Iraq. Appointed Commandant of the Marine Corps in November 2006, General Conway's recent experience and insight will surely produce a memorable luncheon address.

The MCA appreciates its event and award sponsors, led by Rolls Royce North America.
