

OUR CORPS

Saved Round

Edited by Sara W. Bock

Sgt Clinton Firstbrook, USMC

FAITH IN FALLUJAH—U.S. Navy chaplain LT Kenny Lee prays with a leatherneck from “Charlie” Company, 1st Battalion, Third Marine Regiment during the Second Battle of Fallujah, Operation Al Fajr, Nov. 29, 2004. Al Fajr was an offensive operation to eradicate enemy forces within the city of Fallujah. The Marines of 1/3 battled insurgents in support of continuing security and stabilization operations in the Al Anbar province of Iraq. Chaplains like LT Lee stayed with their Marines throughout the heavy combat, offering them prayer and spiritual guidance.

